

Delhi Sightseeing Tours

With a history going back more than 3,000 years, the capital of India is a seamless blend of tradition and modernity, where ancient monuments co-exist with ultra-modern high-rise buildings and commercial plazas.

With its glorious history, Delhi offers many tourist attractions with a harmonious blend of Mughal and British colonial architecture. A stroll on Rajpath to see the famous Rashtrapati Bhavan and war memorial, India gate or a visit to the Lal Qila, Qutub Minar, Humayun's tomb and Jama Masjid will be unforgettable. Of the new marvels, the Lotus temple and Akshardham are worth a visit. The rich handicrafts of India are best showcased at the State emporia, Cottage emporium and Dilli Haat. Delhi is not complete without tingling your gastronomical senses at specialty gourmet restaurants or even lip-smacking street food.
